

Application Form Link- Application Form for Consultant Position – Fill out form
Job Title: Technical Consultant-Adolescent Health and Policy
Location	Jharkhand	Band/Grade: CTC:	Consultant
Department	Special Projects-Piramal School of Leadership	Last updated on:	10-04-2026
		Degree of Travel required to:	50 -60 % travel
Purpose of Job	The Adolescent SRHR Health and Policy Technical Consultant will serve as a subject matter expert providing technical and policy support to strengthen adolescent health and SRHR programming in Jharkhand. The role involves supporting NHM’s RSKS initiatives, collaborating with state- and district-level government functionaries, and working closely with the Technical Support Unit (TSU) to enhance system responsiveness to adolescent health needs. The consultant will lead capacity-building, policy guidance, and evidence-based interventions aligned with national and state priorities.
Duration and Renewal	This is a contractual position for one year, renewable annually based on performance, program needs, and funding availability.
Key stakeholders	External		Internal
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> State and national government stakeholders (Mission Directors, NHM, MoHFW, Tribal Ministries) Technical and implementation partners Research and academic institutions 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Core Leadership Team Program Directors MEL, Strategy, Programs, Partnerships, and Operations teams Field teams and technical specialists
Reporting structure	Role directly reports to Co-Impact Project Lead
Essential Qualifications	MBBS with MD in Community Medicine / Public Health OR Master’s in Public Health / Health Policy with demonstrated expertise in Adolescent Health and SRHR.

Essential Experience	Essential Experience: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 8–10 years of progressive experience in the public health sector, preferably in adolescent health, SRHR, or related health areas. • Prior experience working as a Technical Consultant or Technical Expert with reputed public health organizations, development partners, or government agencies. • Proven track record of working with State and National Health Missions, providing technical support and policy guidance on adolescent health programs (e.g., RKSK, RMNCH+A, or related initiatives). • Hands-on experience in designing, facilitating, and conducting trainings for public health professionals and frontline health workers. • Demonstrated ability in program implementation, monitoring, and system strengthening at state or district levels. • Experience in working with technical agencies such as WHO, UNICEF, USAID, UNFPA, or other bilateral/multilateral partners will be an advantage. • Strong analytical, coordination, and documentation skills with the ability to translate technical concepts into actionable strategies.
Essential Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strong understanding in adolescent health, SRHR, and public health systems. • Demonstrated experience of working with state-level government officials, particularly NHM and related departments. • Proven ability to design and facilitate capacity-building programs for health and allied cadres. • Strong analytical, documentation, and reporting skills. • Effective communication and coordination with multiple stakeholders and government institutions. • Excellent written and verbal communication skills in English and Hindi; proficiency in the local language preferred. • Familiarity with RKSK, RMNCH+A, and related public health frameworks. • Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a multi-stakeholder environment. • Willingness to travel frequently within the state and work in field settings.

Key Roles/Responsibilities:Key Deliverables

- Provide strategic and technical guidance to support the State NHM and allied departments on adolescent health and SRHR policies, strategies, and operational frameworks.
- Support integration of SRHR priorities within existing adolescent public health platforms and health systems.
- Design, develop, and facilitate training curricula and modules for peer educators, and public health staff
- Provide technical assistance to state and district officials for effective planning, implementation, and monitoring of adolescent health programs.
- Build technical capacity of state and district teams to improve adolescent health program delivery.
- Strengthen convergence across departments to achieve holistic adolescent health outcomes.
- Liaise with government functionaries, development partners, and technical agencies for program alignment and coordination.
- Represent the organization in key technical committees, working groups, and review meetings.
- Develop research briefs, policy notes, and case studies to document innovations and learnings.
- Contribute to development of program indicators, dashboards, and reporting mechanisms.
- Support evidence-driven reviews and data-based program planning.
- Develop technical resources, knowledge products, and advocacy materials to enhance awareness and policy support for adolescent SRHR.

Application process: Candidates interested in the role may apply with their updated resumes and filling out the application form in the link given above. (Mandatory to fill the application form)

Candidates are required to share their resume on below mentioned mail id:

HR.IBC@piramalswasthya.org